4. Scope

This policy applies to all L&F Training staff and Learners; to include staff working within L&F Training trading as Francesco Hair & Beauty Salon. It provides guidance on best practice to follow; to safely conduct meetings, workshops and lessons online.

All self-employed contractors should be made aware of this policy and understand their responsibilities within it.

5. Definitions

When we refer to 'On-line' we mean any virtual platform utilised for the purpose of conducting meetings or lessons, workshops and training remotely (i.e. not face to face).

6. Safely Teaching and Meeting Online – Best Practice and Guidance

L&F Training recommends that the following actions be carried out, to ensure that both L&F staff, Learners and any others, attending online lessons or meetings, are safeguarded from any abuse, unacceptable behaviour or allegations thereof.

- Utilise a Platform for the Meeting/lessons which provides maximum security to participants (i.e. cannot be 'bombed' or 'raided' allowing unwanted, disruptive intrusion, generally by Internet trolls, into a video-conference call).
  - a. MS Teams is recommended for this purpose; as it can only be accessed by those invited to attend.
  - b. Zoom – if using Zoom, it is important to have the Waiting Room function enabled, so that the Chair (or designated colleague) can vet those accessing the meeting.
  - c. Any other platform – If using any other platform, ensure it has a security facility (e.g. a waiting room etc.) to enable participants to be screened before they are allowed to join the meeting.
- Send all expected participants, prior to the meeting, the expected etiquette to follow during the meeting and what they can expect:

- a. When logging in to the Meeting/lesson platform, they should use their name (or an alternative agreed with the host beforehand – in the case of a sensitive meeting/workshop); so that the host can easily identify them to allow them entry into the session.
  - b. All cameras should be switched on to allow participants to see each other.
  - c. Microphones should be muted, except when speaking within the meeting, to reduce feedback and background noise, thereby assisting the meeting to go more smoothly.
  - d. The Lesson/meeting will be recorded (this is not necessary for internal meetings where all attendees agree it is unnecessary). Please Note: Recordings of the lessons/Meetings, will be held securely, in line with GDPR regulations and will only be accessed:
    - i. in the event of an incident or allegation being raised
    - ii. Occasionally by the Secretariat, for meetings, to ensure Minutes are accurate.
    - iii. Occasionally by an IQA if needed to carry out a remote lesson observation
 Recording Lessons is a necessity, to safeguard participants as, if any allegations are made by any attendee, following the meeting, the recording can be made available to those investigating the allegation (e.g. the Police).
  - e. Please Note: For those individuals uncomfortable with having a session recorded, which will therefore record their image, please discuss with the Lesson/Meeting host to agree a way forward. This could include:
    - i. The Host explaining how the background can be blurred, if the participant is uncomfortable with their home background being recorded.
    - ii. Agreeing that any responses to question during the session can be via the Chat function, if the participant doesn't like the idea of having their voice recorded
    - iii. The Host providing reassurance that the individual's image will not be used for any other purposes e.g. marketing.
- At the beginning of each online lesson or workshop, the Teaching & Learning Mentor, should re-confirm British Values, to remind all participants that they should behave respectfully towards one another, throughout the session.

There may be other activities you identify to help you teach or meet safely online. Please share these with colleagues as appropriate and advise the Designated Safeguarding Lead, who can arrange to have this policy updated accordingly.
